

The Festive Season

I can't quite believe I'm writing my newsletter for December! Time has flown and what a rollercoaster year it has been!

I have begun to consider the whole of December as Christmas time, with so many fairs, events and projects being festively orientated it's hard not to! I do enjoy it though! If you have any last minute Christmas card illustration requests please get them in asap and I'll do my best to fulfill orders in time.

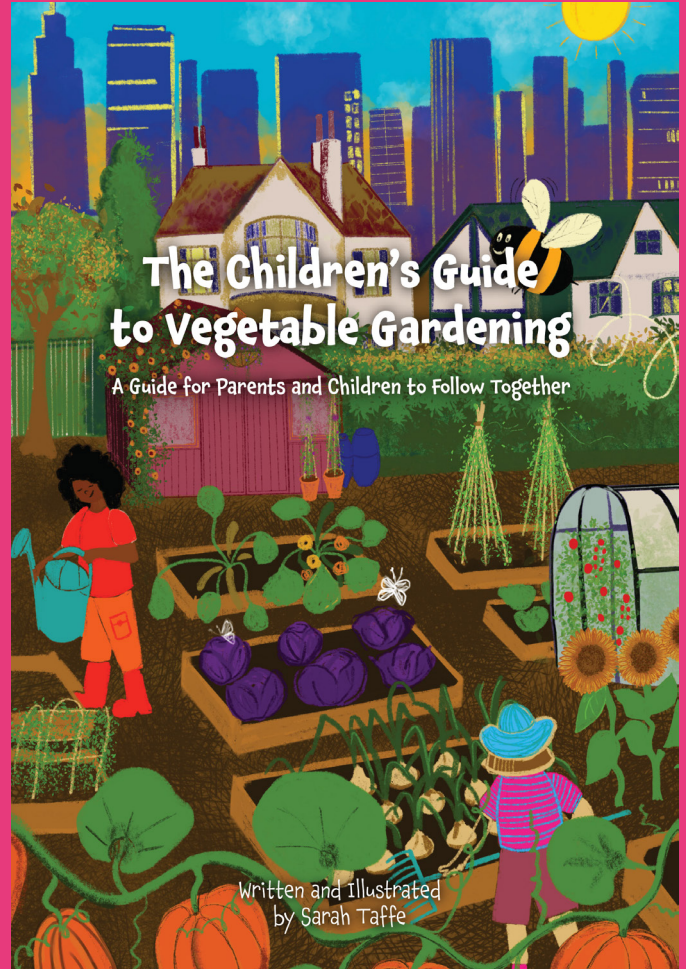

I want to thank you for your continued support, not just this year but over the past few years. It hasn't always been easy, and your loyalty is greatly appreciated.

Wishing you a wonderful Christmas, and I look forward to working with you in 2025.

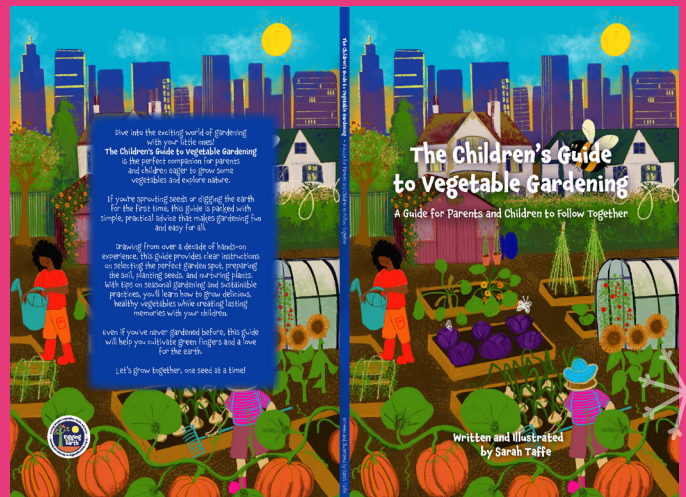

Sarah.

My First Guide

My guide, The Children's Guide to Vegetable Gardening is now available on Amazon in hardback, paperback and eBook formats. You can find it by searching for the title, or my name, Sarah Taffe.

If you're looking for a book for children and parents to follow together, I'd appreciate you considering this one!

My Column with the Derbyshire Times

I'm pleased to say that the Derbyshire Times kindly kept my column open to me until I was ready to start writing again. I'm back at it and thoroughly enjoying myself!

Please look out for my thoughts on growing my own vegetables, allotment life and mental health.

Grab a print copy on Thursdays for all the latest Derbyshire News or search 'Sarah Taffe' on derbyshiretimes.co.uk for my latest ramblings.
